Chief Guest

Shri Santosh Kumar Gangwar
Hon. Minister of State for Labour and Employment (Independent Charge)

Shri Santosh Gangwar, a law graduate from Rohilkhand University, Bareilly (Uttar Pradesh), was born on 1st Nov 1948. Shri Gangwar is one of the senior most Parliamentarians in the country, who has represented Bareilly Parliamentary constituency in the Lok Sabha for the 8th time.

During the tenure as a Union Minister, Shri Gangwar has completed more than 8 ½ years i.e. 6 years during the previous governments and more than 2 ½ years in the present government. He was Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas with additional charge of Parliamentary Affairs in 13th Lok Sabha. Prior to this, Shri Gangwar was Minister of State of Science and Technology with additional charge of Parliamentary Affairs in 1999.

Shri Gangwar, at his credit, was also the chairman of the PAC i.e. Public Accounts Committee.

Shri Gangwar, in the present Council of Ministers, was holding the charge of Ministry of Textiles (Independent Charge). In the Textiles Ministry, Shri Gangwar focussed extensively on all the thrust areas of textile where the government helped the downtrodden section of the society such as weavers, craftsman, farmers etc. Shri Gangwar paid special attention to North Eastern States and Kashmir, so that the development could be initiated at those places which were ignored by the previous government.

Thereafter, Shri Gangwar joined the Ministry of Finance as Minister of State from 5th July 2016 and served till 3rd September 2017, during his tenure he was member of GST Council and was instrumental in successful rolling out of GST in India. He was Minister of State for Labour and Employment (Independent Charge) from 3rd September 2017 onwards in 16th Lok Sabha.

At present Shri Gangwar is Minister of State for Labour and Employment (Independent Charge). Shri Gangwar is known for his simplicity, honesty and exceptional accessibility, despite being the union minister.

Guest of Honour

Dr. Iltefat Hamzavi, M.D.

Dr. Hamzavi earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, with honors, in Sociology from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Dr. Hamzavi received his medical degree from the University of Michigan Medical School and graduated with academic honors in a variety of specialty rotations. Dr. Hamzavi completed his residency in dermatology at Wayne State University and then spent time in Europe training at some of the world's leading skin care centers.

In 2001, Dr. Hamzavi completed an advanced one-year laser and photo-medicine fellowship at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

Dr. Hamzavi is an active clinic researcher and investigates causes and treatments for vitiligo, hidradenitis suppurativa, photomedicine, and other conditions.

Dr. Hamzavi also serves as senior staff physician at Henry Ford Health System's Department of Dermatology, and teaches medical students at Wayne State University. He has co-authored over 100 peer reviewed papers which have been cited over 2000 times in highly respected journals. He also volunteers his time with a variety of non-profits in education, civic engagement and bringing attention to debilitating skin diseases. He has served as founding Co-Chair of the Global Vitiligo Foundation and as President of the Hidradenitis Suppurativa Foundation.

He sees patients at our Fort Gratiot and Canton locations. He also serves as physician liaison for the group.
